What to do on the Island

Guernsey is a small island with a big sense of adventure. From sea to cliffs and countryside, there's so much to explore right on our doorstep.

Outdoor Adventures

Discover Guernsey's diverse landscapes with activities for all ages, from kayaking, surfing, and paddle-boarding to climbing and coastal walks. Indoor activities also available and equipment can be delivered to the glampsite. Visit Outdoor Guernsey.

Cycling & Exploring

Guernsey's peaceful lanes and scenic coastal roads make it perfect for exploring by bike. Rent a bike or join a guided tour with Go Guernsey to see the island from a different perspective.

Surfing

Head to Vazon Bay, the island's surfing hub. It's Guernsey's largest surfable beach and ideal for all skill levels. Lessons and board hire are available through the Guernsey Surf School.

Getting Around

Exploring the island is easy with Guernsey Buses, two stops are just a short walk from Camp de Rêves. Plan your route at Buses.gg.

Island Hopping

- Sark – Hire bikes and explore its peaceful lanes. (Boat: Sark Shipping)
- Herm – Relax on beautiful beaches just a short ferry ride away. (Boat: Travel Trident)
- Lihou – Walk across the tidal causeway (check tide times) and discover its unique wildlife.

Visiting Jersey

If you're planning to explore further, regular high-speed ferries link Guernsey and Jersey. Details at Islands Unlimited.
