

The ISLANDS of GUERNSEY

Let dogs run wild on guernsey's windswept beaches

The Islands of Guernsey are the perfect destination for those looking to holiday closer to home with pets, especially with Condor Ferries' dog-friendly ferry links from Poole and Portsmouth to Guernsey all year-round.

The Old Government House Hotel & Spa is the island's only 5* dog-friendly hotel and with every stay, owners fill out a 'Pet Preference Form' to receive details of nearby walking options and dog friendly services catered to their exact needs. Alongside this arrival pack, guests will be given a pet bed, food and water bowls, alongside treats and toys, ensuring that four-legged friends are made as comfortable as possible. The hotel's variety of amenities and fine dining options, also give guests the opportunity to unwind and relax together, either at the hotel's wellness spa, or over authentic island dishes, at The Brasserie Restaurant.

After a good night sleep, guests can enjoy many dog-friendly walks and routes on the island for visitors to enjoy. Dogs are always allowed on the beaches of Portelet Bay, Rocquaine Bay, Grandes Rocques, Port Grat, Le Grande Havre, Belle Greve Bay, Bordeaux, Havelet, Petit Port, Moulin Huet, Saints Bay, La Jaonnet Bay.

- Classic double rooms start from £265 per night (based on two adults sharing).
<https://theoghhotel.com/about/pets>.
- For more information about Guernsey, visit: <https://www.visitguernsey.com/>